

Donnell Williams

Donnell Williams, broker of record and owner of Destiny Realty, headquartered in Morristown, New Jersey with a branch office in Newark serves as the President-Elect of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers (N.A.R.E.B.). Destiny Realty is one of the largest African American independently owned real estate brokerages in the State of New Jersey. A long-time member of N.A.R.E.B., Mr. Williams has been actively involved in the trade association's efforts to promote the meaningful exchange of ideas about the real estate business and how to best serve its clientele.

His leadership skills positioned him as a regional vice president where he encouraged professional development and increased industry knowledge. Donnell also worked to create an environment that fostered creativity in the workplace and the marketplace as a goal for NAREB members.

In addition to his professional commitment to NAREB, Donnell holds membership in the North Central Jersey Association of Realtors and the New Jersey Association of Realtors; is a member of the Board of Adjustments for Morris (NJ) Township, and a member of the United Developers Council. Additionally, Mr. Williams, a licensed Realtor since 1992 and licensed broker since 2001 earned membership in the New Jersey Million Dollar Club (1995-2000) and holds certifications as a real estate manager and housing counselor. He currently serves as a Chairman of the Board of the New Jersey Association of Minority Real Estate Professionals.

A resident of Morris Township, Donnell's community and civic involvements include active membership as Grand Master of Most Worshipful Oriental Grand Lodge, a member of Morris County Minority Concerns Advisory Committee, and an NAACP Silver Level Lifetime member.
