

Ready for the Job Initiative:

African American
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF
NEW JERSEY

STARTING MONDAY, AUGUST 3, 2020

In concert with "Black Business Month", effective Monday, August 3rd, the AACCNJ is starting a "Ready for the Job" initiative which entails collecting the resumes/business credentials of black male and female, entrepreneurs, students and interns in order to help fill potential job opportunities with small and large corporations of which the AACCNJ has relationships/partnerships.

Process:

- 1. The AACCNJ will use its website to collect and store the resumes.
- 2. Resumes can be entered via FORMS by following the link to the FORMS section: Click Here
- 3. Complete the summary information and upload the resume.
- 4. The resumes on file will be displayed in alphabetical order by name.
- 5. The Summary Document will display the following: First submitted, Last submitted, Status, First name, Last name, Email address, Access code, Best contact number, Job categories, Uploaded resume.

If you are in the job market, we encourage you to upload your credentials/resume to become a part of the "Ready for the Job" initiative. The staff will monitor job requests and will inform individuals, via email, when their resume has been provided for consideration for an open position. Please forward any additional questions regarding the program to mgriffin@aaccnj.com.
